

GUADELOUPE MEETING 26 -31 JANUARY 2014

This program is preliminary and changes may occur. We will also add more information

SUNDAY : Arrival of delegations. Because of the jet lag, some of you will appreciate to go to bed early, that's why we haven't planned a dinner for that night. Those of you who arrive on Saturday or Sunday will be picked up at the airport and taken to the hotel in Saint François. Dinner on your own or together.

MONDAY :

- 7.40 We will pick you up at the hotel.
- 8.00 Welcome by the headmistress and visit of our school.
- 9.30 Presentation by our students and tasting of local products and gastronomy.
- 10.30 Powerpoint presentations of endangered species and nature degradation in each country.
- 12.00 Lunch in the school canteen.
- 13.30 Powerpoint presentations will go on, while the Swedish students will go windsurfing with a class and their PE teacher.
- 19.00 Welcome dinner (you're invited).

Cliquez pour écouter le MP3

TUESDAY :

- 7.45 The hotel shuttle will take you to the town hall
- 8.00 Official welcome by the Mayor of Saint François
- 10.00 Visit of a rum factory
- 12.00 For lunch you will experience the food trucks' tradition on the beach in Port Louis
- 13.00 Guided visit of the mangrove
- 16.00 Walk to Pointe des Châteaux

WEDNESDAY :

- 7.00 Day-charter-sailing-cruise to Petite Terre on a 80 feet catamaran (you're invited). Petite Terre is a natural reserve where fishing is prohibited. Snorkeling gear will be provided for those who want to see turtles, rays, barracudas, corals etc.... On the island you will be able to observe iguanas in their natural habitat.
(If the partners' spouses want to join you for this unique experience we have negotiated a special price for them: 65 euros). Please contact me for reservations asap
- 18.00 Free evening

THURSDAY :

- 8.30 Visit of Basse Terre by bus. Walk in the rain forest. Picnic by the river (you're invited by the National Park)
- 17.00 Free evening

FRIDAY :

- 8.00 Meeting in the college
We would like each delegation to spend one hour with a class of 14-years-old to present the Ppt of your choice (already presented in the former meetings or the last one) and answer the students' questions about your school and your country.
Free afternoon
- 19.00 Farewell dinner (you're invited)